

ACTIVISION BLIZZARD

voluntary benefits that fit your lifestyle

Activision Blizzard is partnering with Mercer, a leading voluntary benefits broker in the U.S., to bring you new options for your voluntary benefits beginning February 1, 2021. These voluntary benefits go beyond your core benefit package. With these new plans, you can save money, live better, and help protect your family no matter what stage you are in with your life or career. Enrollment is completely optional; you can pick and choose which benefits make sense for you and your family.

Auto, Home and Renters Insurance – You could save on your auto, home and renters insurance by comparison-shopping coverages, prices, and discounts from up to 4 of the top-rated auto and home insurance companies in the nation.^{1,2} Others have saved an average of $711.34 through the program!³

¹Home insurance may not be part of the benefit offering in FL and MA.

²Employee discounts are not available from all carriers and only available to those who qualify. Coverages, discounts and billing options are subject to state availability, individual qualification, and/or the insuring company's underwriting guidelines. Individual savings may vary and are not guaranteed.

³Savings are not guaranteed for all Activision Blizzard employees. The $711.34 average annual reported savings is based on others who reported their prior premium and, through Mercer Voluntary Benefits, switched to several carriers' auto insurance programs between 10/24/19 and 10/24/20.

⁴Some exclusions may apply. Certain coverages may be excluded due to pre-existing conditions. See policy documents for a complete list of exclusions. Reimbursement options may not be available in all states.

All of the products being offered are at prices negotiated by Activision Blizzard chosen vendors that may save you money when compared to shopping for these products on your own. And in most cases, once you enroll/apply, your premiums will be conveniently deducted from your paycheck.

Each carrier operates independently and is not responsible for the others' financial obligations.
