

Planning for summer childcare made easier with Wellthy

When school is out, finding reliable, engaging care for your child becomes even more important and sometimes more challenging.

Between packed summer calendars, last minute changes, and keeping kids entertained and safe, planning for summer can feel overwhelming. Wellthy, your caregiving support benefit, is here to help you build a summer care plan that fits your family's needs and your schedule.

From full time childcare to creative camps and flexible coverage between activities, our care experts are ready to take the stress off your plate and help you feel confident about the months ahead.

HOW WELLTHY CAN SUPPORT WITH SUMMER CHILDCARE

Research and vet summer camps, programs, and workshops based on your child's interests

Locate tutoring, academic enrichment, and specialty learning opportunities

Help find and coordinate nannies, sitters, and in home childcare providers

Identify local financial assistance programs or scholarships to offset care costs

Explore flexible options like half-day camps, daycares, and summer programs that fit your family's schedule

Create a summer childcare plan that fits your family's unique routine and priorities

Summer should be a season of excitement, not a season of stress. Wellthy is here to help you line up the support you need so your family can enjoy the best of it.
